Help is needed daily, but if you can only help on certain days, it would be greatly appreciated! Please contact Pastor Martha if you can help.

Property Committee Volunteers Needed ...

Do you know which end of the hammer to use? Do you how to cut in and roll a wall with paint? If you have some time, on Thursdays this summer, we'd like to take on some additional work in and around your church. We do these extra tasks with no more than five (5) hours from each volunteer, between the hours of 8:00 AM and 2:00 PM. Some work may be in teams, other work may do alone. If you're up to the task, we'd like to have you join us. We'll be working in the Fellowship Hall, Theater, Little Friends of Grace and odd things around the complex we're not able to get during the regular year. Please notify us via the RCR card in today's bulletin.

Thank you sharing some of your time with us,
The Property Committee

Church & Village: Partners in Ministry

(As editor of this piece for nearly six years, I am retiring from CLV on July 6 and therefore wanted to send to the churches my farewell message. Thanks to the churches for their involvement. Hermine Saunders, Director of Church & Public Relations)

Seventy-one is fast approaching—time to begin a new phase of life. Working at the Village for the last 14+ years has been very rewarding—sounds like a cliché—except that I have been very glad to be part of furthering the vision and mission into the 21st century. Having been part of the very beginning of the Village when my mother served on the start-up committee from our church, having been on the Board of Trustees for 12 years through joy and adversity, having come to work here in 1998 at Michele Crew’s request after going off the Board, and finally having moved here in 2004 with my mother, I have been part of the dream and ongoing fulfillment of goals of an organization that literally changes lives, brings health and happiness to many, and insures that caring is a ministry.

My position at the Village has been ideal for a former teacher who enjoyed watching young lives change into maturing adults setting out to change their world. Likewise at the Village, I have seen the continuing care retirement industry change and mature. The Village has often been in the forefront of visioning the future and leading the industry to better the lives of residents. In fact, in my various positions, I have often said, “Our Residents are our raison d’être,” and overall have been pleased with the way the Village has demonstrated the same.

The visioning of the future is something I have always fostered, whether it was building more homes and apartments to serve more residents, whether it was building the chapel and assisted living for completing our continuum of care, whether it was developing programs that enriched lives and met needs, or whether it was developing the Return on Investment committee of residents to tell the Village story. A grassroots operation in the beginning, born out of the local conference of Lutheran churches and their lay people, Carroll Lutheran Village has maintained its “local color” of closeness and caring so important to a social ministry organization dependent upon relationship building into the community.
